

Edouard Thijssen

Edouard Thijssen is a next generation member of the family behind the Belgian 3bn$ Aliaxis Group, and co-founder and CEO of Trusted Family.

10 years ago, Edouard developed a mobile app and online platform to improve Board, Shareholder and Family communication for his family business & office and to help keep his family together. He then turned his idea into a business called Trusted Family, and his platform is now used by over 4000 family business and family office members around the world.

Edouard is a 2007 graduate of the Solvay Business School. He has also completed the Leading the Family Business program at IMD, Switzerland.

Edouard is based between London and New York City.